Application for Enrollment - Master of Divinity program

General Information

1. COMPLETING THE APPLICATION FORM: Print in ink (or type) all information. The form must be complete in every detail. Incomplete forms may not be processed. Answer N/A (Not Applicable) for all items which do not apply to you.
2. APPLICATION FEE: A non-refundable Application Fee of $50.00 is to accompany this form. A cheque or money order is to be made payable to Concordia Lutheran Seminary. Payment may also be made by e-transfer to donate@concordiasem.ab.ca and the answer to your security question to key@concordiasem.ab.ca.
3. OFFICIAL TRANSCRIPTS: Official Transcripts from ALL universities/colleges attended must be furnished before application can be considered. It is your responsibility to ensure that all Official Transcripts are furnished in a timely manner.
4. REFERENCE LETTERS: You are to request letters of reference from your pastor and other referees as indicated in the application form. Please give your referees sufficient time to submit their letters of reference to the Director of Admissions.
5. CRIMINAL RECORD CHECK: You must obtain a Criminal Record Check (including the 'Vulnerable Persons/Sector' check) and submit it to the seminary. This can be obtained from your nearest RCMP detachment or local police service. There is usually a charge for this, and it may take several weeks to process your request. Contact your local police service or RCMP detachment for information on the request process. The website for Edmonton Police Information Checks is <http://www.edmontonpolice.ca/pics>
6. BIBLICAL LANGUAGES: CLS students actively use both Biblical Hebrew (Old Testament) and Biblical Greek (New Testament) throughout the MDiv programme. Ideally, you will have both languages before you apply and begin studies. You may be required to take a language proficiency exam in a language that you haven't studied formally (there are some self-study tutorial programs available) or if more than seven years have passed since you took a language course. High quality translation-oriented courses can be taken at many universities (Concordia, Prairie) and some online sites. If you do not have one or both languages, you may still apply to take MDiv or open Study courses but will not be accepted fully into the pastoral track until languages are completed. You are then expected to pick up the languages while studying here. Taking the languages while enrolled generally adds at least one more year to the timeline for graduation. Please contact the seminary for further information about options.
7. KEEP THIS: Keep this front page of your application for reference throughout the application process. There is a checklist on the back of this page to assist you with your submission of a complete application package.

AUTOBIOGRAPHICAL INFORMATION

Please answer the following questions so that we may become better acquainted with you.
Use a separate piece of paper/document titled "Autobiographical Information"

Section A.

1. What individuals, factors, and deliberations have prompted your desire to study for the Office of the Holy Ministry?
2. Which individual(s) has given you the most encouragement and support in your desire to prepare for the pastoral office?
3. What is your reason for applying to Concordia Lutheran Seminary in particular? How did you hear about the ministerial preparation program of Concordia Lutheran Seminary?

Section B

1. What is your understanding of the Office of the Holy Ministry?
2. What characteristics, in your view, are the most important for a pastor to display in his life?

Section C

1. What specific strengths do you possess as they relate to the Office of the Holy Ministry?
2. What spiritual, emotional, and academic characteristics or other personal factors would you most like to change or develop in yourself in order to improve your effectiveness as a future pastor?
3. Itemize and describe the church related experiences which you have had to date. Tell what your duties were and the dates when they were performed. What did these experiences teach you?
4. Itemize and describe any other volunteer work you have done, in the Church and in the wider community. What did these experiences teach you?
5. Do you have any personal or physical limitations or handicaps, learning disabilities, or other special needs that could require special consideration in the classroom, or when receiving an assignment to a field education position, or a vicarage, or when being assigned a placement into the pastoral ministry at graduation?

Section D

1. What are the five best books which you have read within the last three years?
2. Which magazines, journals, newspapers, or online publications do you read regularly?
3. What are your leisure time activities and hobbies?
4. What specialized or professional training have you undertaken?

Section E

1. What does the Gospel mean to you?
2. How does the Holy Spirit work in your life?

Section F

Note: The questions in this section are related to criminal activity, immoral behavior, reputation, and character. An answer of "yes" to any of these questions does not necessarily disqualify you from being considered for admission to CLS or the pastoral ministry.

There are several purposes for asking these questions. First, they challenge you to conduct a searching inventory of past and present activities in order that you may address them in a God pleasing way, likely with the help of your pastor, if you have not already. Second, they help identify to you and to the seminary any areas that still might be of concern, and for which we will seek to offer pastoral support. To that end, you may receive a call from seminary personnel to follow up on your responses. Although such a conversation might in some cases result in a decision not to admit you, the approach in every case will be pastoral, not legalistic. This information is kept confidential among the members of the CLS community who are responsible for admission and participation at the Seminary.

As you approach the questionnaire, it may help to keep in mind the Apostle Paul and how he dealt with sins of the past. To the Corinthians he wrote: I am the least of the apostles, unworthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace toward me was not in vain. (1Co 15:9-10)

Answer each of the questions in this section. If you answer "Yes" to any of the questions, state on an accompanying sheet the details (e.g. dates, location, individual, organizations) that will clarify and explain your answer.

Your Institution
/Organization Name:

The applicant named above has applied for admission to the Master of Divinity degree program at Concordia Lutheran Seminary. The admission process for this program is intensive, and your reference is an integral component. The Admissions Committee is looking for letters of recommendation that include responses to the following questions. (Use this sheet as a guide while you compose your letter; be sure to include the applicant's name as well as your own.)

- What is your relationship to the applicant?
- How long have you known the applicant?
- How well do you know the applicant?
- Is the applicant a member of your church? If so, for how long?
- Give your impression of the applicant's qualifications and temperament for ministry, considering such areas as theological foundation, communication/listening skills, leadership ability, interpersonal skills, intellectual ability, church/community involvement. Please be specific.
- Do you have any reservations about this person's ability to do graduate level work or to eventually function as an effective pastor? Please comment.
- Does the applicant have a servant's heart? Give examples.

- St. Paul, inspired by the Holy Spirit, wrote in Titus 1:6-9: “An elder must be blameless, the husband of one wife, a man whose children believe and are not open to the charge of being wild and disobedient. Since an overseer is entrusted with God’s work, he must be blameless—not overbearing, not quick-tempered, not given to much wine, not violent, not pursuing dishonest gain. Rather he must be hospitable, one who loves what is good, one who is self-controlled, upright, holy and disciplined. He must hold firmly to the trustworthy message as it has been taught, so that he can encourage others by sound doctrine and refute those who oppose it.” (NIV)
- In light of the above scriptural imperatives, are you aware of any personality traits, behavior, or circumstances that would disqualify the applicant from this high office? Please comment.
- Do you see the applicant having any ongoing tendencies that may reduce their effectiveness or that are a concern to you?
- Please relate any other facts about the person and character of the applicant that you believe the Admissions Committee should know.

How would you rate the applicant's suitability for the Office of the Holy Ministry? (circle one):

Exceptional	Very Good	Good	Fair	Poor
-------------	-----------	------	------	------

What is your recommendation for admission to Concordia Lutheran Seminary? (circle one):

Recommend with Enthusiasm	Recommend	Recommend with Reservation	Do not Recommend.
---------------------------	-----------	----------------------------	-------------------

Please sign and date your letter, complete the Personal Characteristics Form on the following page, and attach both to this sheet and mail it to the address at the bottom of this page.

All responses will be kept confidential. Only the members of the Admissions Committee will have access to the information that you submit.

Send this completed form to:
